MICHAEL BRUNO

A Perfect Fall

Michael Bruno, founder of the curated marketplace for antiques, 1stdibs.com, dreams up his ideal day with a mix of vintage and modern items. By Emily Orley

- "It starts with fresh green juice. I recommend the Breville Juice Fountain Duo for blending hearty ingredients like fall kale, dandelion greens, apple, lemon, and ginger." $400; williams-sonoma.com

- "For a fun outing, I jump in my friend's vintage Jeep Wagoneer "woody" loaded with food and friends, and we cruise to Harriman State Park in upstate New York to see the turning of the leaves. This completely restored 1980s Grand Wagoneer is made for such occasions." $78,000-$152,000; grandwagoneer.com

- "As for attire, I would put on a pair of suede boots by Alden for J.Crew. Alden shoes are a staple in my wardrobe, and this pair has all the signature features and details of their own line: handmade, made to last forever, great traction, and handsome. Casual with lots of style." $495; jcrew.com

- "When there's a chill in the air, I always reach for one of my Brunello Cucinelli cashmere scarves. The quality is unparalleled, soft, and it has just the right weight for warmth. I like the soft shades of blues and grays out this fall." $935; boutique.brunellocucinelli.com

- "Once we settle on a spot, we'll pull over and drop down the tailgate, set up a vintage picnic set, add Tanqueray gin, and stir." $7,600; 1stdibs.com; $24.99; tanqueray.com
