Maison Gerard will present the sculptural works of Marino di Teana (1920-2012) from July 22 through August 26, 2017 in the gallery's first off-site exhibition, which will be set within the beautifully landscaped gardens of a historic Grosvenor Atterbury mansion in Southampton, NY. Eighteen works by the late artist will be showcased; they are made of corten and stainless steel and range in size from small to monumental. Located on a private estate, this exhibition will be open to the public by appointment Monday-Thursday and daily, Friday-Sunday from 10:00am to 5:00pm. To make a reservation, please call 212-674-7611.
