Michael Bruno (inset), founder of high-end online for art and antiques marketplace Istdibs, and his partner Alexander Jakowec have listed their massive Southampton spread at 199 Coopers Neck Lane. It's asking $12.95 million. They bought it for $15 million in 2015, and were rumored to be contemplating a sale in 2017. Bruno tells The Post the couple is spending more time at their home in Maine. Now officially on the market, the 14,000-square-foot brick home in the Hamptons features 11 bedrooms and sits on 3 acres near the ocean. It was built in 1910 by lauded architect Grosvenor Atterbury. The listing brokers are Corcoran's Tim and Thomas Davis.

OFF THE HOOK

ACTOR couple Michael Shannon and Kate Arrington (above) — and their two adorable kids, Sylvie and Marion — have called Red Hook home for about a decade. Now the loft they rented at 275 Conover St. is on the market for $6,500 a month. Shannon, Oscar-nominated for his roles in “Revolutionary Road” and “Nocturnal Animals,” has also been in “8 Mile” and “Boardwalk Empire.” Meanwhile, Arrington has a number of her own credits, including Broadway roles in “Grace” and “Our Mother’s Brief Affair.” Their two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment is above a Fairway market in a former warehouse from the 1850s. At 2,000 square feet, it features exposed brick, “Civil War-era” wood beams and arched windows overlooking New York Harbor. High ceilings reach 13 feet in a modern layout with an open kitchen/dining room. Building amenities include a shared roof deck. The listing broker is Carey Larsen, of Citi Habitats.
